SUMMARY

Software Engineer who obtained a certificate in Full Stack Web Development from Georgia Institute of Technology. A self demonstrated creative-thinker who is detail-oriented, coachable, and adaptable—proficiency with the programming languages HTML, CSS, and JavaScript. Additionally, knowledgeable with SQL, Node, and React.js. Proven background in the tech field with extensive experience troubleshooting and debugging different problems for internal and external users. Looking to combine web development and IT expertise to maximize efficiency. My proudest coding projects are the ones where I struggled the most but always persevered.

TECHNICAL SKILLS

Languages: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, React.js, MongoDB, Express.js, Node.js

PROJECTS

Note Taker | <https://github.com/Reagintaylor/notetaker> | <https://young-spire-94098.herokuapp.com/>

- This app enables the user to create, save and delete notes from the local storage.
- My core responsibilities were using javascript to save and delete the notes from the local storage
- JavaScript, HTML, CSS, Express.js, Node.js

Meal Prep Life | <https://github.com/Reagintaylor/meal-prep-life> | <https://reagintaylor.github.io/meal-prep-life/>

- This app retrieves recipes from a free api when searched and allows the user to add the recipes to their weekly calendar. The user can click on the recipe and check off the steps as they make the recipe.
- In my group, I was responsible for displaying the actual recipes on the search page and displaying the recipe when clicked on again in the calendar. I also designed the home page and recipe page.
- HTML, CSS, JavaScript

PlanIt | <https://github.com/Reagintaylor/PlanIt> | <https://reagintaylor.github.io/PlanIt/>

- PlanIt allows a user to plan a party by adding the music, decorations, activities and food they would like to have at their party. The user can login to retrieve their parties
- My responsibility was to help design the page with the use of partials and render the data when planning the party
- JavaScript, HandleBars, CSS, Node.js, Express.js, MySQL
